Swedish heavy metal band ENFORCER formed in 2005 by lead vocalist and guitarist Olof Wikstrand. The first two albums Into The Night (2008) and Diamonds (2010) established the band's loyal fanbase and left a long-lasting imprint in the heavy metal world. With increasing success in the underground scene, ENFORCER led and created a worldwide movement later referred to as 'the new wave of traditional heavy metal'. In 2012 the Swedes were recognised for their impressive musical repertoire and signed a worldwide record deal with the biggest metal label in the world, Nuclear Blast Records. Since then, the band have released three more studio albums with Death by Fire (2013), From Beyond (2015) and Zenith (2019). To date, ENFORCER have toured the world over, playing the biggest festivals and garnering a global fanbase. The culmination of their tireless work ethic resulting in the release of two live albums, Live By Fire (2015) and Live By Fire II (2021).

ENFORCER have proved themselves both live and on record, and in 2023 they stake their place amongst the world's most renowned heavy metal bands.

ENFORCER have returned with yet another uncompromising heavy metal album titled Nostalgia. The album is a reflective look at everything that once existed and a reminder that life is in a constant state of change. It's a confrontation of the eventuality that, through the destructive force of time, everything withers and ceases to exist. All matter decays into nothingness.

The blindsiding new studio album Nostalgia, featuring 13 heavy metal anthems, throws ENFORCER back to their speed metal roots. Fusing extreme guitar riffing with catchy stadium choruses, ENFORCER are out to conquer the world with their sixth and most hotly anticipated album to date.
